We are unable to continue processing your current FAFSA application for financial aid because it contains conflicting information regarding your parent's marital status. We need to know what your parent's marital status was as of the date your parent signed the original Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). This date can be found on the Student Aid Report (SAR) that you received from the U.S. Department of Education. Please complete the following clarification question:

On the date my original FAFSA was signed, my parent's marital status was:

Never Married

Married                                      Date of Marriage

Remarried                                    Date of Remarriage

Divorced                                      Date of Divorce

Separated                                     Date of Separation

Widowed                                        Date of Death

*Separation is defined as legally separated or informally separated when one of the partners has left the household for an indefinite period and the marriage is severed.
